

900 Years of Hospitality Heritage

WOODSTOCK Walk & Dine

Discover the Town's colourful past on an entertaining guided walk.
Then enjoy a delicious meal of fresh, locally produced homemade food in the new dining room at The King's Head.

The walk is led by renowned local historian and archaeologist Andrew Webster*, and features:

The Story of the English Pub

Medieval Woodstock

The Birthplace of The Black Prince

Lady Elizabeth

The Imprisonment of a Tudor Princess

The Civil War Years & The 350th Anniversary of the Restoration of the Monarchy (1660 - 2010)

Current Archaeology

Woodstock's Lost Royal Palace & The Castle Mystery

and

Sir Walter Scott and the haunting truth about The Devil of Woodstock

 or a member of the Heritage Team*

The Walk meets at The King's Head in Park Lane
every day (except Monday)
at 11am & 6pm
and lasts approximately 1 1/2 hours.

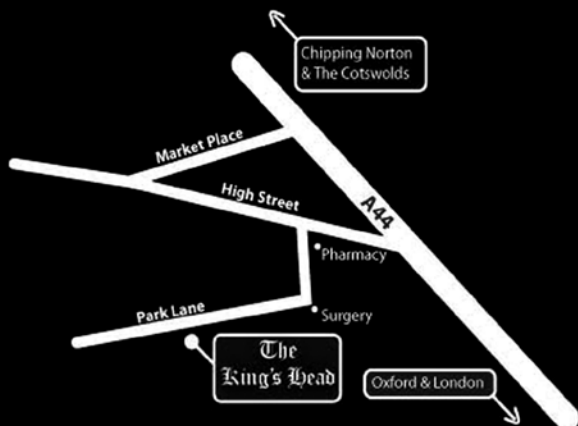

Prices (per person):

Walk	£7
Walk & Bar Meal	£12
Walk & 2 Course Lunch or Dinner	£18

(All above prices include FREE tea or coffee)

Children's & Group Rates are available.

To book your place either visit The King's Head or telephone 01993 812164

The Guided Walk is operated by

Andrew Webster Group
Hospitality Event Management & Heritage Services
Telephone 07766 306799